

RDWA RG24

17-18 MAY
ADELAIDE CONVENTION CENTRE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

FRIDAY 17 MAY City Rooms 1, 2 and 3

From 8.30am	Registration	City Rooms Foyer
9.00am - 10.45am	Communications Masterclass for Non-VR Doctors, including registrars Develop and practise high level communication skills relevant to general practice, specifically looking at dealing with challenging consultations, complex patients and boundary setting, sustainable practice and burnout prevention. The session will include a mix of discussions, small group work and role play.	Dr Tim Kelly, CEO AOGP, Clinical Director RDWA R2R Intern Program and SAVES  Dr Cate Howell, GP and author  Dr Michele Murphy, Clinical Psychologist Mr Mark Aiston, journalist and broadcaster
10.45am - 11.00am	Morning Tea	City Rooms Foyer
11.00am - 12.00pm	Communications Masterclass continued
From 11.30am	Registration for RG24 Conference Day 1
12.00 - 12.50pm	Lunch	City Rooms Foyer
12.50pm	Conference Welcome and Acknowledgement of Country	Lyn Poole Chief Executive Officer, RDWA
1.00pm - 2.00pm	Diagnosing Dementia Dementia is more than a memory problem. Cognitive tools are not diagnostic tests and in many situations a GP is ideally placed to diagnose and manage dementia.	Dr Stephanie Daly (MBBS FRACGP) Dementia Training Australia
2.00pm - 3.00pm	Advances in Burns Care Hypermetabolic management, skin substitutes, advancements in debridement, laser and advancements in scar therapy will be discussed.	Dr Bernard Carney (MBBS FRACS) Consultant Specialist Plastic and Reconstructive Surgeon
3.00pm - 3.30pm	Afternoon Tea	City Rooms Foyer
3.30pm - 4.30pm	Under the radar: When serious illness is missed A series of adult and paediatric cases that illustrate presentations where serious illness may initially be unrecognised leading to delayed diagnosis and management. This session aims to alert doctors to the possibility and enable them to recognise early signs of serious illness and observe risk to patients.	Dr Peter Stuart (MBBS FACEM) Director RESP Director of Clinical Training, BHFLHN
4.30pm	Day 1 Evaluation and Close	Lyn Poole Chief Executive Officer, RDWA
4.40pm - 5.30pm	Rural GP and Family Welcome Drinks All welcome	City Rooms Foyer

THE PROGRAM HAS BEEN ACCREDITED BY THE RACGP AND ACRRM
 AFTERNOON CONFERENCE PROGRAM FRIDAY: 3 HOURS EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITY

- health inequities
- professionalism and ethical practice

FRIDAY 17 MAY PROGRAM

RDWA RG24

17-18 MAY
ADELAIDE CONVENTION CENTRE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

SATURDAY 18 MAY City Rooms 1, 2 and 3

From 8.30am	Registration for RG24 Conference Day 2	City Rooms Foyer
8.55am	Day 2 Welcome and Acknowledgement of Country	Mandy McCulloch General Manager, RDWA
9.00am - 10.00am	Hot topics in Gastroenterology and Hepatology An update on fatty liver disease, inflammatory bowel disease, management of upper GI bleeding and more. Attendees are invited to bring questions and cases for discussion.	A/Prof William Tam (MBBS FRACP Gastroenterology and Hepatology) Consultant Gastroenterologist and Interventional Endoscopist
10.00am - 11.00am	Peer to Peer Discussion on Management of ADHD in Children Attendees are invited to bring questions and cases for discussion.	Dr Daham De Silva (MBBS FRACP Paediatrician) Consultant Paediatrician
11.00am - 11.30am	Morning Tea	City Rooms Foyer
11.30am - 12.00pm	Rural Generalist Obstetrics... Who, what, when An update on training and retention to support continual delivery of obstetric services across rural South Australia.	Dr Kris Bascomb (MBBS FRACGP FACRRM) SA Rural Generalist Obstetrics Advisor Rural Generalist Obstetrician, Boston Bay Family Health Director of Clinical Services EFLHN
12.00pm - 12.30pm	Let's see how far we've come - RGA training, education and support An update on training and retention to support continual delivery of anaesthetic services across rural South Australia.	Dr Peter Gilchrist (MBBS FRACGP) SA Rural Generalist Anaesthetics Advisor Rural Generalist Anaesthetist, FUNLHN, Tripartite Committee of Rural Generalist Anaesthesia Chair
12.30pm - 1.30pm	Skin Cancer in primary care Basic dermatoscopy and the future of diagnosis, how to win with simple ellipses, introduction to flaps and grafts, and how skin cancer consultations are supported through Medicare.	Dr Gerry Considine (MBBS FRACGP-RG FACRRM MMED Skin Cancer) Rural Generalist - Clare Medical Centre, Rural Skin Cancer Service
1.30pm - 2.15pm	Lunch	City Rooms Foyer
2.15pm - 3.15pm	Real ways of working together - changing systems to improve kidney care This session will discuss a multidisciplinary team approach to patient-centred care.	Dr Samantha Bateman (MBBS FRACP General Medicine and Nephrology) Central and Northern Adelaide Renal and Transplantation Service and Nunkuwarrin Yunti Community Controlled Health Service Ms Kelli Owen Community Engagement Coordinator, National Indigenous Kidney Transplantation Taskforce
3.15pm - 4.15pm	Psychiatric assessment in Children and Adolescents This session will explore psychiatric assessment of children and adolescent patients living with mental health issues in rural SA. Attendees are invited to bring questions and cases for discussion.	Dr Peyman Bakhtiarian (MBBS FRANZCP Child and Adolescent Psychiatry) Consultant Psychiatrist
4.15pm - 4.25pm	Conference Evaluation and Close	Gretchen Scinta Executive Director PHC Workforce and Outreach, RDWA

THE PROGRAM HAS BEEN ACCREDITED BY THE RACGP AND ACRRM

CONFERENCE PROGRAM SATURDAY: 4 HOURS EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITY + 2 HOURS REVIEWING PERFORMANCE

- health inequities
- professionalism and ethical practice
- culturally safe practice

SATURDAY 18 MAY PROGRAM